GALUMPHING: A HORROR THE WAR HAS NOT KILLED

THE NEGATIVE STATE IS NOT LEFT LONG UNDISTURBED - AND THE POSITIVE STATE OF ACUTE DISCOMFORT AND UNHAPPINESS BEGINS!

There is grave reason to fear that the ghastly amateur mania for 'classical' and semi-classical dancing has survived the seriousness of the war. What this means to society only those who have had experience of it can tell.

Lights Out! Too Dangerous

My dear, you look sweet enough to kiss! Professor - Aren't you taking my course next year? Student - Can't possibly. I walk in my sleep. - Harvard Lampoon.

Quite Emotional

Madge - Nell has a highly emotional role in the new play. May - That's good. Last year she was only a chorus girl. Madge - Yes, she has to scream twice in the second act while the star struggles with a burglar!

Tommy (on Salisbury Plain) - My Bill! Ain't they tame round 'ere?
